

Production Supervisor

Work location: Machining Division @ 16 Gul Drive

Responsibilities:

- Ensure production meet delivery requirements
- Increase workers' efficiency/productivity, and monitor their performance and to provide training when necessary
- Perform job inspection and provide guidance to new workers
- Monitor machine utilization and coordinate with scheduler on job loading and machine planning
- Ensure proper machining set-up & identify machine for servicing/repair if necessary
- Investigate the root cause of non-conformance, and recommend corrective actions and measures to prevent
- Provide administrative support for production
- Instill good discipline and diligence of workers
- Emphasize good 5S and proper housekeeping in the production floor

Requirements:

- Minimum Nitec in precision engineering
- Relevant experience in manufacturing industry, preferably in Precision Engineering / metal machining / oil & gas industry
- Relevant experience in leading a team
- Good interpersonal and communication skills
- Possess a valid forklift license will be an added advantage
- Able to perform shift work (morning & night shift)
- Possess own transport is preferred
- Able to work independently and effectively with minimum guidance

Interested applicants kindly send your detailed resume by stating your present and expected salary to dhrr@drilmaco.com.

We regret to inform that only shortlisted candidates will be notified.